You’re invited to Melbourne to attend the 2007 National Values Education Forum

Values Education in Practice: Making Connections
Melbourne Exhibition and Convention Centre, Melbourne, Victoria
3 & 4 May 2007

The Australian Curriculum Studies Association (ACSA) has been commissioned by the Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST) to manage the 2007 National Values Education Forum. ACSA will be organising the forum in conjunction with the Victorian Department of Education to be held in Melbourne on Thursday 3 & Friday 4 May 2007 at the Melbourne Exhibition and Convention Centre, Melbourne, Victoria.

The forum aims to:

• Explore the implementation of the National Framework for Values Education in Australian Schools
• Update participants on developments in the Department’s Values Education Programme
• Share good practice in values education in Australian schools
• Involve student voice in values education and
• Facilitate discussion about future directions for values education

The forum will bring together keynote speakers, international panellists, stakeholders, teachers, principals and students. Workshops and presentations will provide the impetus for discussion about current and future directions in values education in Australia and internationally. Keynote speakers include Dr. Neil Hawkes, Professor Nel Noddings and Dr. Andy Furco.

Meeting costs for the Forum are $231.00. Participants organise and pay for their own travel and accommodation. The optional forum dinner will feature a dinner speaker and will be held at the Melbourne Aquarium at a cost of $88.00 which includes a beverage package.

If you are interested in attending please complete the attached registration form, one per person, and return it to the Australian Curriculum Studies Association as soon as possible and definitely by Thursday, April 5th, 2007. Fax: 02 6260 5665 email: acsa@acsa.edu.au
