Curriculum Corporation Privacy Policy for Consultants registering interest

Curriculum Corporation abides by the National Privacy Principles as required by the Privacy Amendment (Privacy Sector) Act 2000 (the Act). The National Privacy Principles can be accessed at www.privacy.gov.au.

The personal information of any individual provided to Curriculum Corporation by means of a curriculum vitae or otherwise will be dealt with as follows:

- it will be held by Curriculum Corporation solely for the purpose of considering your interest in working as a consultant;
- it will be held in a secure location and accessed only by personnel who are directly involved in the selection process for potential consultants;
- you have the right to request:
  (a) access your personal information;
  (b) that your personal details be updated or corrected;
- your skills will be assessed on a case by case basis in accordance with Curriculum Corporation requirements at that time (if any). If Curriculum Corporation decides to retain your personal information, it will inform you and your personal information will be retained in accordance with this policy. If Curriculum Corporation considers that your consulting skills do not match its requirements, your personal information will be destroyed.

Note: material transmitted over the internet is not entirely secure and accordingly Curriculum Corporation cannot guarantee the security of any personal information transmitted or received from it by means of the internet.
