

Worksheet Two – Issues List

In your 'constitution groups', and, from your adoptive perspectives, work out the kind of laws you would have with respect to the following issues. Remember, an Indigenous Elder might think differently about land ownership when compared to a miner or a farmer, and an environmentalist may have yet another view. Similarly, a business person and a parent might agree on access to education for different reasons, but disagree on what proportion of taxation should be allocated to it.

Land Ownership

Access to Education

Access to Health Care

Taxation

Freedom of Speech

Freedom of Religion

Freedom of Association

Cultural Rights

Private Property